MINOR PROGRAM IN HISTORY

If you have an interest in history or are perhaps considering graduate study in history at a later stage, you may wish to apply for the Minor Program in History. The program is open to students from all departments (for details on eligibility for the Minor Program, see http://www.bilkent.edu.tr/bilkent-tr/admission/vandal.html).

Prerequisite Courses: None

Courses required for the Minor Program:

6 HIST courses including at least 3 from the following:

HIST 411 Ottoman History 1300-1600
HIST 412 Ottoman History 1600-1914
HIST 413 Byzantine History I
HIST 414 Byzantine History II 1025-1453
HIST 417 Medieval Europe (500-1500)
HIST 418 Modern Europe 1453-1914
HIST 431 History of the United States until the Reconstruction
HIST 432 History of the U.S from the Reconstruction until Modern Times

The choice of courses will depend on your aims in entering the program.

If you see yourself as likely to enter the Masters Program in History at a later stage, please consult over your choice of courses with a member of the History Department faculty. You may also want to look at the requirements of the Preparatory Year for the different tracks of the Master Program (See PROGRAM FOR PREPARATORY YEAR FOR MASTER OF ARTS AND FOR DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY PROGRAMS). It is possible, through the Minor Program, to dispense with the need for a separate Preparatory Year for the Masters Program, though, in such a case, there may still be the need to take, during the First Year of the Masters Program, a couple of additional courses that would normally be in the Preparatory Year.

If your aims in entering the Minor Program are simply to study some history for your broader education, with no particular objective of studying history at the graduate level, then you may take advantage of a much freer choice of courses, with up to three electives at the Graduate level (5xx or higher). It might be best, however, to start with some of the 4xx level courses listed above. Again, feel free to consult a member of the History Department faculty.
